

BREAKFAST WITH PAPERS

Hosted by Tom Wright

TODAY'S PANEL – Thursday 14 March

Claire Mallinson

Claire is the Director of Amnesty International Australia. She has had 34 years of experience in rights-based work and the not for profit sector. Her career spans across Scope, the UK's biggest not for profit disability organisation, Cancer Research UK, and Greenpeace Australia/Pacific.

Deb Whitmont

Deb is a journalist, author, former Middle East correspondent and senior reporter for the ABC's Four Corners program. She is a former lawyer and has won a number of awards for her reports on asylum seekers and indigenous affairs.

Lainie Anderson

Lainie is a columnist with Adelaide's Sunday Mail and has 30 years' experience in journalism. She's a former state political reporter for Melbourne's Herald Sun and also spent a couple of years at The Times in London. She's a mum to twin boys, a freelance writer and also runs her own business. In early 2017 she travelled overseas on a Churchill Fellowship, visiting nine countries in seven weeks to retrace the route of the 1919 Air Race from England to Australia.

#AdiFest #AdiWW #ThePalaisAF

PRESENTING PARTNERS

The Advertiser

